

HOW TO LAND THE PERFECT Job

Sponsored by DentalPost

The job-seeking process is a stressful time.

What do I wear?

What questions should I ask?

How do I make my resume stand out?

We all want to put our best foot forward to land that next job (or first job!). But we must remember the interview process is a two-way street. It is equally important for a candidate to find a job that suits them as it is for a dental practice to find a great hire.

In this dynamic presentation, we'll cover the key steps to finding a job you love - from writing a winning resume to navigating the job interview and negotiating the offer, and free tools you can use right now to find the best fit for you!

Learning Objectives:

- Identify critical points of an effective resume
- Discuss effective interview techniques
- Utilize assessments to understand yourself and the work environment
